MCA ropes in Nuvama Private as title sponsor for T20 Mumbai League 2026 and the first T20 Mumbai Women's League

The Mumbai Cricket Association (MCA) has appointed Nuvama Private as the title sponsor for the T20 Mumbai League 2026 and the first T20 Mumbai Women's League, significantly increasing the league's commercial prominence ahead of the forthcoming season.

The cooperation is a significant step forward in the continuous expansion of the T20 Mumbai League, which has developed as a leading platform for finding and fostering cricketing potential in Mumbai, which is largely considered to have one of the best talent streams in Indian cricket. Since its inception in 2018, the league has included notable players who have moved on to higher levels of the game, including the IPL and international cricket.

The T20 Mumbai Women's League will also be launched during the upcoming season, representing a significant step toward enhancing the women's cricket pipeline and boosting chances for budding female cricketers in the region.

The partnership with Nuvama Private brings together two institutions that share a dedication to quality, ambition, and long-term growth.

Nuvama Private, Nuvama Group's UHNI (ultra-high-net-worth individuals) division, is one of India's top and fastest-growing private wealth firms, servicing over 4750 of the country's wealthiest families. It provides customised solutions in investment advising, family governance, estate planning, and financing services.

Ajinkya Naik, President of the Mumbai Cricket Association, said, "We are pleased to welcome Nuvama Private as the Title Sponsor for the T20 Mumbai League 2026 and the inaugural T20 Mumbai Women's League. This partnership reflects the growing stature and credibility of the league ecosystem that MCA has built over the years. Mumbai has always been at the forefront of Indian cricket, and through these leagues, we aim to continue creating strong pathways for emerging talent while delivering a world-class sporting product."

Rajdip Gupta, Chairman of the T20 Mumbai League Governing Council, commented, "We are happy to partner with Nuvama Private at an important phase in the league's journey. The T20 Mumbai League has evolved into a serious cricketing and commercial property with strong brand equity, deep fan engagement, and a proven talent-development ecosystem. Having a respected institution like Nuvama Private as a partner highlights the increasing appeal of the league among leading brands and institutions."

The association with Nuvama Private underlines Mumbai's growing trust in its cricketing environment, as well as the T20 Mumbai League's long-term growth potential.

Alok Saigal, Head - Nuvama Private, said, "Over generations, Mumbai has stood for enterprise, ambition, excellence, and legacy. Cricket is deeply woven into the city's identity, bringing communities together and inspiring future talent. We are pleased to partner with the Mumbai Cricket Association as the T20 Mumbai League enters a defining new chapter, marked by the introduction of the women's competition alongside the men's tournament. At Nuvama Private, we believe in supporting platforms that create enduring value, and through this association, we look forward to contributing to Mumbai's evolving cricketing legacy."

The T20 Mumbai League 2026 and the first T20 Mumbai Women's League will include numerous notable international and domestic players, as well as the next generation of rising talent, confirming the league's position in the city's continuing cricket growth and development.

The men's and women's competitions will take place at the Wankhede Stadium in Mumbai from June 1 to June 13.
