THE MUMBAI CRICKET ASSOCIATION has announced Nuvama Private as title sponsor for the T20 Mumbai League 2026 and the inaugural T20 Mumbai Women's League.

The upcoming season will also mark the launch of the T20 Mumbai Women's League, expanding opportunities for women cricketers from the region. Since its launch in 2018, the T20 Mumbai League has served as a platform for players who have progressed to the IPL and international cricket.

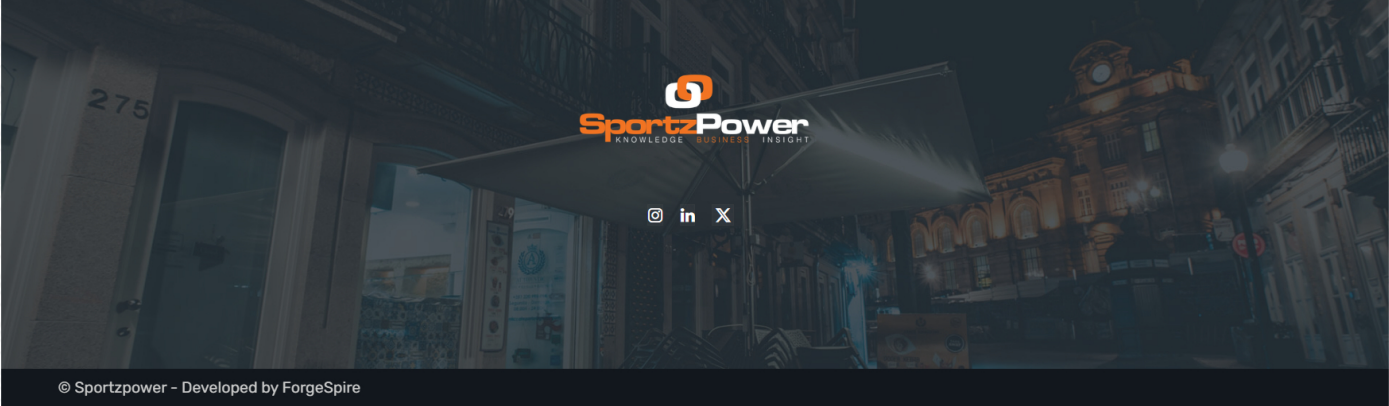

Nuvama Private is the ultra-high-net-worth individuals (UHNI) business of Nuvama Group, serving over 4,750 families across investment advisory, family governance, estate planning, and financing services.

MCA president Ajinkya Naik said: "We are pleased to welcome Nuvama Private as the title sponsor for the T20 Mumbai League 2026 and the inaugural T20 Mumbai Women's League. This partnership reflects the growing stature and credibility of the league ecosystem that MCA has built over the years. Mumbai has always been at the forefront of Indian cricket, and through these leagues, we aim to continue creating strong pathways for emerging talent while delivering a world-class sporting product."

According to an official release, the partnership reflects the "growing commercial interest in Mumbai's cricketing ecosystem" and the long-term potential of the T20 Mumbai League.

Nuvama Private head Alok Saigal commented, "Over generations, Mumbai has stood for enterprise, ambition, excellence, and legacy. Cricket is deeply woven into the city's identity, bringing communities together and inspiring future talent. We are pleased to partner with the Mumbai Cricket Association as the T20 Mumbai League enters a defining new chapter, marked by the introduction of the women's competition alongside the men's tournament. At Nuvama Private, we believe in supporting platforms that create enduring value, and through this association, we look forward to contributing to Mumbai's evolving cricketing legacy."

Both the men's and women's tournaments will be held simultaneously at Wankhede Stadium in Mumbai from June 1 to June 13, featuring international and domestic players alongside emerging talent.
