The Mumbai Cricket Association (MCA) has announced that Nuvama Private, the wealth management division of Nuvama Group, will serve as the title sponsor for the T20 Mumbai League 2026 and the inaugural T20 Mumbai Women's League. The agreement marks a notable commercial milestone for both tournaments, which are scheduled to run concurrently at the Wankhede Stadium from June 1 to June 13.

This partnership is expected to enhance the commercial profile of the T20 Mumbai League, a platform established in 2018 to identify and nurture cricketing talent from the region. The league has previously seen several players advance to higher levels of the sport, including the Indian Premier League (IPL) and international competitions.

EXPANDING OPPORTUNITIES FOR WOMEN'S CRICKET

A key component of this association is the launch of the T20 Mumbai Women's League. This initiative aims to establish a structured pathway for women cricketers, providing increased opportunities for emerging talent in the Mumbai region. The introduction of a dedicated women's tournament aligns with broader efforts to develop women's cricket at a foundational level.

Nuvama Private, recognized for its services to ultra-high-net-worth individuals (UHNI) in India, offers bespoke solutions including investment advisory, family governance, and estate planning. The company's involvement is positioned as a commitment to supporting platforms that foster talent and contribute to regional development.

EXECUTIVE COMMENTARY ON THE PARTNERSHIP

Ajinkya Naik, President of the Mumbai Cricket Association, stated that the sponsorship reflects the growing stature and credibility of the league ecosystem developed by the MCA. He emphasized the objective to continue creating robust pathways for emerging talent while delivering a competitive sporting product.

Rajdip Gupta, Chairman of the T20 Mumbai League Governing Council, noted that the league has evolved into a significant cricketing and commercial entity, characterized by its brand equity and fan engagement. He added that partnering with an institution like Nuvama Private (<https://www.nuvama.com/>) underscores the league's increasing appeal among leading brands.

Alok Saigal, Head of Nuvama Private, connected the sponsorship to Mumbai's identity of enterprise and excellence, highlighting cricket's deep cultural roots in the city. He expressed Nuvama Private's interest in contributing to Mumbai's evolving cricketing legacy, particularly with the introduction of the women's competition.

The T20 Mumbai League 2026 and the T20 Mumbai Women's League are anticipated to feature a blend of established international and domestic players alongside promising new talent, reinforcing their role in the ongoing development of cricket in the city.
